

APPLICATION FORM

Intensive course September 7-12, 2015

Lutheran School of Theology (Församlingsfakulteten i Göteborg) in collaboration with Concordia Theological Seminary (Ft Wayne, IN, USA).

Bishop Bo Giertz in Context: His Life, His Works, His Writings - HIT H749 (3 credits), Senior Lecturer Dr. Rune Imberg

Bishop Giertz was one of the most important Lutheran theologians in the 20th century. In this intensive course we study his life and his personal theological development. We will analyze his theology through his writings (especially through the books translated into English), from a contextual perspective, studying how they are connected with his personal development and also the development of the modern liberal Swedish society.

Requirements for admission: An European Bachelor of Theology (or similar) or an American Master of Divinity (or similar). All literature, lectures, and assignments in English. Limited number of students.

Course fee (3,500 SEK) is to be paid before the course upon admission to the course. More details in the letter of admission.

- I apply for the course, interested in the full S.T.M. degree program.
- I apply for the course, but for non-credit.

- I attach a copy of my diploma/certificate (including an official translation in English) of previous theological degrees.
